

Announcement from Wolverine Plating Company

It is with deepest regret that we inform you that our long-time co-owner at Wolverine Plating Corp., Richard (Rick) Keith, passed away early Friday morning after battling a long illness. Our thoughts and prayers are with our dear friend and his family.

Rick served as President of Wolverine for the last 25 years and worked at the Company in various capacities for 33 years. Rick was also a past President of The Michigan Chapter of National Surface Finishing (formerly known as the Michigan Association of Metal Finishers) and participated in that organization for many years.

Visitation will be on Wednesday, August 29, from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Kaatz Funeral Directors, Yale, MI. Funeral services will be at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 30, at Trinity Missionary Church, Yale, MI, with 10:00 a.m. visiting. Memorials are suggested to Cornerstone Schools, Detroit, or Wishes of the Family.

Rick is survived by his wife of 31 years, Mary Beth, and their three sons, Jake, Zack, and Kyle.

Wolverine Plating will continue to provide the high level of service and products its customers have come to know and expect through the efforts of the remaining owners and its experienced management team and staff. Questions may be directed to Tom, Ken, Rich Sorensen, Interim CFO, or Zack Keith at the Company.
